The State of Rhode Island, acting through the Department of Administration's Division of Purchasing, invites bids from the general public for the sale of real property deemed excess by the Department of Environmental Management. The property comprises three vacant parcels, each approximately 5,000 square feet, in a residential neighborhood at First Street, East Providence, Rhode Island. A more detailed property description and Instructions to Bidders are contained in the attached prospectus.

Thank you for your interest in this parcel.
Michael Sullivan, Director
Department of Environmental Management

Part 1 Description of Parcel Characteristics and Special Conditions

Overview

The State of Rhode Island, acting through the Department of Administration's Division of Purchasing, offers for sale three vacant parcels, each approximately 5,000 square feet, in a residential neighborhood at First Street, East Providence Rhode Island. The subject property comprises Plat 16, Block 180, Lots 2, 3, and 4.

Size, Shape and Site

The subject property consists of 3 contiguous parcels of land located on the west side of First Street south of Quarry St. and north of Fort St. The subject property is situated in an area zoned for 1 and 2 family residential, R6.

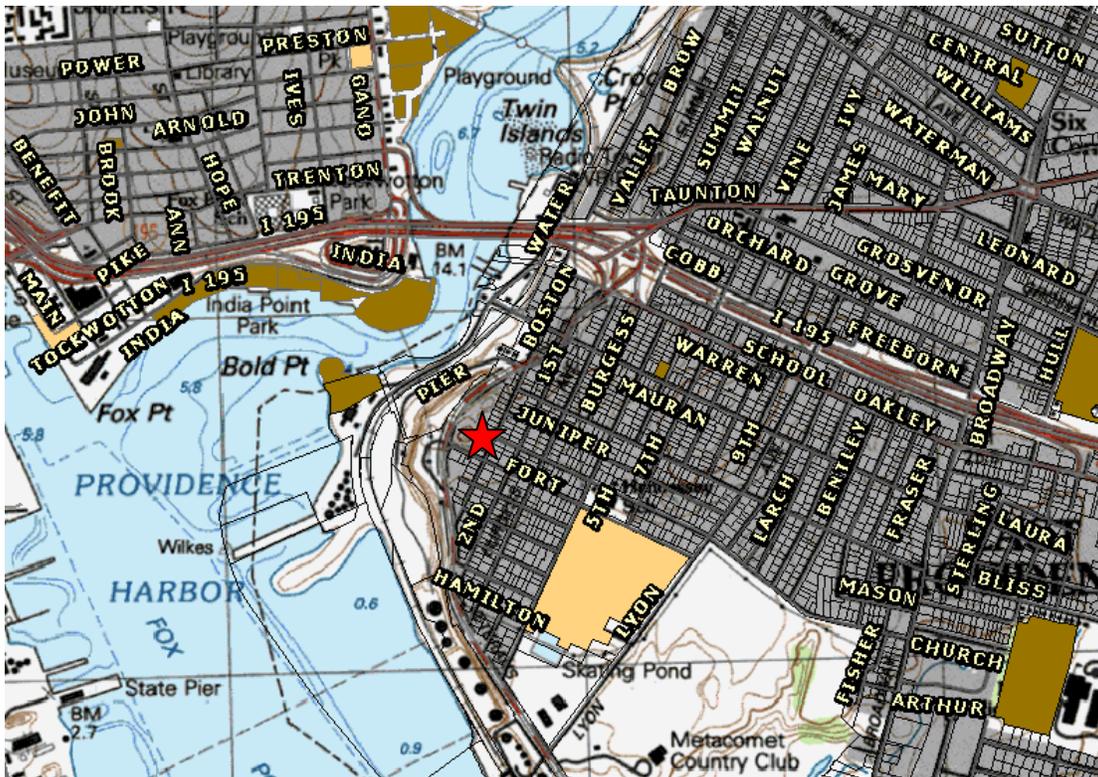

The parcels are generally rectangular in shape and each contain approximately 5,000 square feet of land area. The properties are generally, level, cleared and at street grade. Surface drainage is adequate.

Site Improvements: The parcel is presently vacant and contains no improvements.

Off-site Improvements: There are currently no off-site improvements.

Zoning

The parcels are all zoned for 1 and 2 family residential – R6. The minimum lot size in this zone is 5,000 square feet with a minimum frontage of 50', making all three parcels buildable lots.

Location and Neighborhood

The subject property is located on the westerly side of First Street, off Veterans Memorial Parkway, and between Quarry and Fort Streets. The parcels are situated at the head of a residential neighborhood. At the rear of the lots is a forested tract between the lots and Veterans Memorial Parkway. The residential neighborhood is zoned for 1 and 2 family homes. The parcels are proximate to Narragansett Bay, the East Bay bike path, Metacomet Country Club, Pierce Field, and have easy access to Route 195. All city services and utilities, including water, sewer, electricity, natural gas, telephone, police, fire protection, and garbage collection are available and in use throughout the neighborhood.

Utilities

All utilities and town services are available in sufficient quantity. Private sanitation service provides garbage collection.

Flood Zone: The National Flood Insurance Rate Maps, Panel #44007C0309G indicates that the property is not located in a flood zone.

Environmental: A garage used for maintenance vehicles was formerly on the property. This property is sold “as-is” by Quitclaim Deed. No claims or representations are being made as to the condition of the property relative to the environmental quality of the land and/or improvements thereon. Buyer may review any and all files related to environmental conditions on this parcel and abutting lands.

Easements/Encroachments/Encumbrances/Restrictions: None

Current Use: The property is currently unused and vacant.

Assessment and Taxes: The subject property is assessed to the State of Rhode Island as follows for 2009/10:

Plat Lot	Land	Building	Total	Taxes
16/180/2	$60,500	$ -0-	$ 60,500	$ -0-
Plat Lot	Land	Building	Total	Taxes
16/180/3	$60,500	$ -0-	$ 60,500	$ -0-
Plat Lot	Land	Building	Total	Taxes
16/180/4	$60,500	$ -0-	$ 60,500	$ -0-
Total	$181,500	$ -0-	$181,500	$ -0-

The 2009/2010 tax rate for residential vacant land in the City of East Providence was $15.43 for every $1,000 of assessed value. Although the property is currently exempt from taxes since it is owned by the State, if it were not exempt, taxes in the amount of $2,800.54 ($933.51 per lot) would be due for the current year.

Part II Conditions of Sale

1. The subject property will be sold “as is” by quit claim deed. No warranty deed will be offered by the State. Any /all sales of excess property are subject to the final approval of the State Properties Committee. The selected Bidder will be responsible for the cost and preparation of a conveyance plat map in accordance with RIDEM Standards and a metes and bounds description describing the subject property.
2. The State will pay no broker’s fee, finder’s fee, commission, or other compensation to any party claiming to counsel or represent any Bidder regarding the sale of the subject property.
3. No representations will or have been made by the State that the subject property meets local, State or Federal ordinances, regulations or laws governing development of property commercially, industrially, or otherwise.
4. All accepted bids are subject to the pre-emptive rights to the subject parcel’s (re)purchase by its owner(s) at the time of condemnation and the City of East Providence pursuant to Title 37, Chapter 7, Sections 3 and 5 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended.
5. Any use of the subject property will be in compliance with “Appendix C,” Title VI of the Federal Civil Right Act of 1964, as amended, i.e., without discrimination as to race, color, or national origin.
6. Any public utilities or municipalities having facilities under, over, or through the subject property as of the date of its conveyance to the selected Bidder shall have the right and easement to continue to maintain, operate, and renew their facilities within the subject property.
7. If applicable, the selected proposer will indemnify, save harmless and defend the RIDEM and the State of Rhode Island from any claim or claims arising from the discovery, uncovering, finding, transportation, storage and disposal of any oil, hazardous material, hazardous waste or hazardous substance, as those terms are defined by any applicable law, rule, or regulation, including but without limitation, the Rhode Island Hazardous Waste Management Act, Rhode Island General Laws Section 23-19.1-1 et seq., the Rhode Island Rules and Regulations for Hazardous Waste Management (2002), the Oil Pollution Control Act, Rhode Island General Laws Section 46-12.5.1-1 et seq., the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. 6901 et seq., attributable to the selected proposer subsequent to the date the property is conveyed to the selected proposer arising under the Rhode Island General Laws, Sections 23-19.1-1 et seq., as amended or otherwise and Rhode Island General Laws, Section 46-12.5.1-1 et seq., as amended or otherwise.
8. All costs associated with responding to this Request for Proposals and/or producing written and oral clarification of its contents will be the responsibility of the proposers. The State will assume no responsibilities or liabilities for these costs.

9. The State makes no assertions or warranties regarding the presence, if any, or absence of asbestos, chemicals, hydrocarbons or other hazardous materials on the property.

Part III Instructions to Proposers

All respondents are advised to review all parts of this Request for Proposals and to follow instructions carefully. Proposals, which are incomplete, obscure, conditional, irregular, or lacking in necessary detail, or containing additions not called for, will be rejected by the State.

Affidavits and Disclosures

- Proposers that are foreign corporations, meaning corporations not chartered in Rhode Island but licensed to do business in Rhode Island, are required to submit with their proposal an affidavit duly executed by their president, vice president, or general manager and stating that the corporation has, in accordance with the provisions of the Rhode Island General Laws, obtained a certificate authorizing it to do business in Rhode Island. These certificates or certified copies are obtained from the Rhode Island Secretary of State's Office.
- Corporations and partnerships are required to submit with their proposal a Certificate of Disclosure of Corporation or Partnership (Forms 1 and 2, attached to Part IV) listing the name and address of principal officers.

Withdrawal of Proposals

No proposal will be allowed to be withdrawn after it has been received by the Rhode Island Department of Administration.

Rejection or Acceptance of Proposals

The State reserves the right to unconditionally accept or reject any and all proposals. The State likewise reserves the right to impose under the Quitclaim Deed of Conveyance any special conditions or restrictions which the State may deem necessary.

Unacceptable Proposals

No proposals will be accepted from, nor will any proposal be awarded to any person, entity, firm, or corporation that is in arrears or is in default to the State of Rhode Island upon any debt, tax, or contract, or that is a defaulter in surety or otherwise upon any obligation to the State of Rhode Island, or that has failed to perform faithfully any previous contract with the State of Rhode Island. No consideration will be given to proposals that are inconsistent with the information required in the attached Proposal Form (Part IV) and/or this Request for Proposals.

Explanations Written and Oral

Additions or deletions to this Request for Proposals will be made known to all proposers via written addenda. The State will not be responsible for any oral instructions.

Signature of Bidder

Proposals must be completed and signed in ink by the proposer or their representative. Corporations, partnerships, or other business entities responding to this Request of Proposals must include a certificate of authority attesting that the individual signing on their behalf was duly empowered to do so.

Proposal Surety

Proposals must be accompanied by surety in the amount of five percent (5%) of the total gross sum bid by the proposer.

Surety may be in the form of:

1. A certified or cashier's check made payable to the "General Treasurer: State of Rhode Island."
2. A bid bond payable to "General Treasurer: State of Rhode Island." Bid Bonds must be underwritten by surety companies authorized and licensed to do business in the State of Rhode Island.

The State reserves the right to retain the sureties of all proposers until the successful proposer has received notice of bid acceptance at which point sureties will be returned to all proposers. All surety companies must be listed with the Department of the Treasury, Fiscal Services, Circular 570, (latest revision published by the Federal Register). RIDEM reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to retain the successful proposer's surety should circumstances not created by the State arise after final bid acceptance affecting completion of the property's sale, or execution of a deed of conveyance or closing thereon. The surety of the selected proposer will be returned and released by the State upon the closing on the property with the selected proposer.

Other Proposal Conditions/Requirements

- Proposals, including monetary offering to the State, will be considered to be firm and fixed. The State expects to receive fair market value for the sale of the property.
- Proposals misdirected to other locations or which otherwise are not received by the State's Division of Purchases by the established due date, for any cause, will be determined to be late and will not be considered. The official time clock for the purpose of registering the arrival of a document is the reception area of the Department of Administration (DOA), Division of Purchases, One Capitol Hill, Providence, Rhode Island.
- In accordance with the Rhode Island General Laws, 1956, as amended, Section 7-1.1-99, no foreign corporation has the right to transact business in the State until it has procured a Certificate of Authority to do so from the Office of the Secretary of State (Tel: 401-222-2357). If applicable, a copy of the proposer's Certificate of Authority MUST be included with their proposal.

- Individual proposals must be bound or contained in a single volume. Proposals must be organized in the exact order in which the Request for Proposal's requirements are presented with page numbers in consecutive order. Respondent must include a Table of Contents that cross-reference each Request for Proposals requirements to specific pages in the proposal.
- Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) participation in proposal preparation and proposal implementation is encouraged.
- The State is soliciting competitive proposals pursuant to determining that such a process best serves the interest of the State and the general public and not because of any legal requirement to do so. The proposer acknowledges that it is the State's right to accept any proposal, or number of proposals, even if from different proposers; or to unconditionally reject any and all proposals; or to amend with the consent of the proposer any proposal prior to acceptance; or to waive any formality and otherwise effect the State's intent under this Request for Proposals all as the State in its sole judgment may deem to be in its best interest. The State reserves the right to interview any and all proposers to fully understand their proposal as well as their individual or corporate experience.
- The State will not be responsible in any manner for any costs associated with proposal submission. The individual proposals, including all drawings, plans, photos, and narrative material shall become the property of the State upon receipt. The State shall have the right to copy, reproduce, publicize, or otherwise dispose of each proposal in any manner that it selects. Furthermore, the State shall be free to use or to adopt as its own, without liability or payment or compensation, any idea, scheme, technique, layout, or plan received as part of this Request for Proposal.
