Part II
Conditions Of Sale

1. The subject property will be sold “as is” by quit claim deed. No warranty deed will be offered by the State. Any and all sales of excess property are subject to the final approval of the State Properties Committee. The selected bidder will be responsible for the cost and preparation of the property surveys, physical inspections, deed and related document preparation.
2. THE MINIMUM BID REQUIRED IS $168,000.
3. Surety in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the total gross sum bid offered must accompany all bids.
Surety may be in the form of:
  - a) A certified or cashier’s check made payable to the “General Treasurer – State of Rhode Island”.
  - b) A bid bond payable to “General Treasurer – State of Rhode Island”. Surety companies authorized and licensed to do business in Rhode Island must underwrite bid bonds.
4. The successful bidder must be willing to enter into a purchase and sale agreement immediately and make every reasonable effort to close on the transaction on or before June 27, 2008.
5. The State will pay no broker’s fee, finder’s fee, commission, or other compensation to any party claiming to counsel or represent any proposer regarding the sale of the subject property or consummation of the lease hereinafter described.
6. No representations will or have been made by the State that the subject property meets local, State or Federal ordinances, regulations or laws governing development of property commercially, industrially, or otherwise.
7. All accepted bids are subject to the pre-emptive rights to the subject parcel’s purchase by the City of Woonsocket pursuant to Title 37, Chapter 7, Section 5 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended.
8. Any use of the subject property will be in compliance with Title VI of the Federal Civil Right Act of 1964, as amended, i.e., without discrimination as to race, color, or national origin.
9. Any public utilities or municipalities having facilities under, over, or through the subject property as of the date of its conveyance to the selected bidder shall have the right and easement to continue to maintain, operate, and renew their facilities within the subject property.
10. If applicable, the selected proposer will indemnify, save harmless and defend the RIDEM and the State of Rhode Island from any claim or claims arising from the discovery, uncovering, finding, transportation, storage and disposal of any oil, hazardous material, hazardous waste or hazardous substance, as those terms are defined by any applicable law, rule, or regulation, including but without limitation, the Rhode Island Hazardous Waste Management Act, Rhode Island General Laws Section 23-19.1-1 et seq., the Rhode Island Rules and Regulations for Hazardous Waste Management (2002), the Oil Pollution Control Act, Rhode Island General Laws Section 46-12.5.1-1 et seq., the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. 6901 et seq., attributable to the selected proposer subsequent to the date the property is conveyed to the selected proposer arising under the Rhode Island General Laws, Sections 23-19.1-1 et seq., as amended or otherwise and Rhode Island General Laws, Section 46-12.5.1-1 et seq., as amended or otherwise.

11. All costs associated with responses to this bid and/or providing written and/or verbal clarification of its contents will be the bidder's responsibility. The State assumes no responsibilities or liabilities for these costs.
12. Execution of a Purchase and Sale Agreement with the State substantially in the form of Exhibit B, see attached.
14. No bids to purchase portions or subparts of the property will be accepted by the State. Bidders must offer to purchase the building and property in its entirety.
15. The Department of Mental Health, Retardation and Hospitals, Department of Administration as well as the State Properties Committee has thirty (30) days to review all bids and at such time will render a decision expeditiously.

Part III Instructions To Bidders

All bidders are advised to review all parts of this invitation to bid package and follow instructions carefully. Bids, which are incomplete, obscure, conditional, irregular, or lacking in necessary detail, or containing additions not called for, will be rejected by the State.

Affidavits and Disclosures

- Include with this Proposal Form the affidavits and disclosures (attached as Forms 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5) described below.
- Bids must include an Affidavit of Non-Collusion (Form 1) stating that neither the bidder nor their agents, nor any other party for them, has paid or agreed to pay any money or valuable consideration directly or indirectly, to any person, firm or corporation for assistance in procuring or attempting to procure the proposal award herein contemplated.
- Bids must include an Affidavit of Non-Conviction (Form 2) stating that neither the bidder nor any of their officers, directors, partners, or any of their employees directly involved in obtaining or performing business with public bodies, have been convicted of or have had probation before judgment or have pleaded nolo contendere to a charge of bribery, attempted bribery, or conspiring to bribe in violation of the General Laws of Rhode Island or the law of any other State or the Federal Government.
- Bidders that are foreign corporations, that is, corporations not chartered in Rhode Island, but licensed to do business in Rhode Island, are required to submit with their proposal an affidavit duly executed by their president, vice president, or general manager and stating that the corporation has, in accordance with the provisions of the General Laws of Rhode Island, obtained a certificate authorizing it to do business in Rhode Island.
- Corporations and partnerships and limited liability corporations are required to submit with their proposal a Certificate of Disclosure of Corporation, Partnership, or Limited Liability Corporation (Form 3, 4, or 5) listing the name and address of principal officers.

Withdrawal of Proposal

No proposal will be allowed to be withdrawn after it has been received by the Rhode Island Department of Administration.

Rejection or Acceptance of Proposals

The State reserves the right to unconditionally accept or reject any and all proposals. The State likewise reserves the right to impose under the deed or lease any special conditions or restrictions which Department of Administration may deem necessary. Any proposal that is incomplete, conditional, obscure, or irregularities of any kind, may be rejected by the State.

Unacceptable Proposals

No bids will be accepted from, nor will any proposal be awarded to, any person, entity, firm, or corporation that is in arrears or is in default to the State of Rhode Island upon any debt, tax, or contract, or that has previously defaulted in surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the State of Rhode Island, or that has failed to perform faithfully any previous contract with the State of Rhode Island. No consideration will be given to bids which are inconsistent with the information required in the attached Proposal Format.

Explanations Written and Oral

Any additions or deletions to this bid will be known to all bidders via written addenda. The State will not be responsible for any oral instructions.

Signature of Bidder

All bids must be signed in ink, notarized, and dated by the bidder or their representative.

Bid Surety

Bids must be accompanied by surety in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the total gross sum bid offered.

Surety may be in the form of:

1. A certified or cashier's check made payable to the "General Treasurer – State of Rhode Island."
2. A bid bond payable to "General Treasurer – State of Rhode Island." Surety companies authorized and licensed to do business in the State of Rhode Island must underwrite bid bonds.

The State reserves the right to retain the sureties of all bidders until the successful bidder has served notice of bid acceptance at which point sureties will be returned to all bidders. All surety companies must be listed with the Department of the Treasury, Fiscal Services, Circular 570, (latest revision published by the Federal Register). The Rhode Island Department of Administration and Department of Mental Health, Retardation and Hospitals reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to retain the successful bidder's surety should circumstances not created by the State arise after the final bid acceptance affecting completion of the property's sale, or execution of a deed of conveyance or closing thereon. The surety of the selected bidder will be returned and released by the State upon the closing on the property with the selected bidder.

Other Bid Conditions/Requirements

- Bids will be considered to be firm and fixed. The State expects to receive fair market value for the sale of the property.
- Bids misdirected to other locations or which otherwise are not received by the State's Division of Purchases by the established due date, for any cause, will be determined to be late and will not be considered. The official time clock for the purpose of registering the arrival of a document is the reception area of the department of Administration (DOA), Division of Purchases, One Capitol Hill, Providence, Rhode Island.
- In accordance with the Rhode Island General Laws, 1956, as amended, Section 7-1.1-99, no foreign corporation has the right to transact business in the State until it has procured a Certificate of Authority to do so from the Office of the Secretary of State (Tel: 401-222-2357). If applicable, a copy of the bidder's Certificate of Authority MUST be included with their bid.
- Individual bids must be bound or contained in a single volume. Bids must be organized in the exact order in which the bid requirements are presented with page numbers in consecutive order. Bidders must include a table of contents that cross-references each bid requirement to specific pages in the bid package.
- Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) participation in the bid preparation and bid implementation is encouraged.
- The State is soliciting competitive proposals pursuant to its determination that such a process best serves the interest of the State of Rhode Island and not because of any legal requirements to do so. The Proposer acknowledges that it is the State's right to accept any proposal, or number of proposals, even if from different Proposer's, or to unconditionally reject any and all proposals; or to amend with the consent of the Proposer any bid proposal prior to acceptance; or to waive any formality and otherwise effect the State's intent under this proposal, all as the State, in its sole judgment, may deem to be in its best interest. The State reserves the right to interview any and all Proposer's to more fully understand their proposal as well as their individual or corporate experience.
- The State is required under R.I.G.L. Section 37-7-3 to offer the property to the City of Woonsocket under the same terms and conditions as the State is willing to sell the property to the successful bidder.
- The State will not be responsible in any manner for any costs associated with proposal submission. The individual proposals, including all drawings, plans, photos, and narrative material shall become the property of the State upon receipt. The State shall have the right to copy, reproduce, publicize, or otherwise dispose of each proposal in any manner that it selects. However, all financial information submitted to show proof of financial viability will be kept confidential and returned to the bidder. Furthermore, the State shall be free to use or to adopt as its own, without liability for payment or compensation, any idea, scheme technique, layout, or plan received as part of this proposal process.
